The Episcopal Church of the Creator, with Northside Baptist Church and St. John's United Methodist Church, recently shared in a community Thanksgiving service.

Preparing to celebrate the Thanksgiving service are the Rev. Todd Watson of St. John's Methodist Church; the Rev. Ann Whitaker of the Episcopal Church of the Creator; the Rev. Stan Wilson of Northside Baptist; and the Rev. Susan Meadors of Northside Baptist. (Special to The Clinton News)

Held at the Episcopal Church of the Creator, the service and communion were led by Todd Watson, pastor of St. John's; Ann Whitaker, rector of Creator; Stan Wilson, pastor of Northside; and Susan Meadors, assistant pastor at Northside.

Watson gave the homily.

Members of the three congregations filled the church and participated in the service, which also featured the Creator choir. An offering was taken to be donated to the continuing work of the Clinton Community Christian Corp.

Following the service, a reception hosted was held in Creator's parish hall. It included an art show and sale by The Mustard Seed.
